

Christine Choi

Managing Director

PFM Financial Advisors LLC

Christine brings over a decade of experience in capital planning, ongoing debt portfolio management, transaction management and strategic financial planning for municipal clients. During her tenure at PFM, Christine has been involved in the debt structuring and issuance of over $10 billion in bond issues. In addition to her significant transaction experience, Christine works with municipal entities on long-term capital planning, policy development and capacity analysis, public private partnerships relating to real estate development of publicly owned land, and credit strategy development. She identifies opportunities regarding market and legislative developments, financing ideas and sector trends.

Christine provides financial advisory project management for a variety of clients including the San Francisco International Airport, Port of San Francisco, State of Hawaii, the Hawaii Department of Transportation – Airports Division, the New Mexico Finance Authority, and the State of Oregon, among others.

Christine serves as Vice President of Asian Americans in Public Finance and Vice President (Programs) of Women in Public Finance, Northern California Chapter.
