

Brodie Killian

Director

PFM Financial Advisors LLC

Brodie joined PFM in 2024 and serves as a director in our Ann Arbor office. Prior to joining PFM, Brodie previously worked as a Managing Director at Stifel Nicholas & Co, where he spent six years as an investment banker. Previously, he worked at Raymond James and William Blair as a Senior Vice President and Director, respectively. His credentials extend to public service; he served as a Deputy Superintendent of Business & Operations at Plymouth-Canton Community Schools.

Brodie received his Bachelor of Business Administration in Finance from the University of Michigan—Stephen M. Ross School of Business, and Master of Public Policy from the University of Michigan—Gerald R. Ford School of Public Policy. Other notable professional education includes the completion of the Chief Financial Officer certification program from the Michigan School Business Officials and the Michigan Leadership Institute's Superintendent's Academy.

He currently serves as the co-chairman of the Michigan Government Finance Officer Association's Legislative Committee. Previously Brodie served on the Board of Directors of the Municipal Advisory Council of Michigan and as vice-chairman of the City of Dearborn's Pension Board of Trustees.
