SUB-ADVISERS & STRATEGY ALLOCATION

Important Disclosures

PFM Asset Management LLC ("PFM" or the "Adviser") has contractually agreed to limit the amount of the Domestic Equity Fund's total annual fund expenses, exclusive of Rule 12b-1 fees, interest and tax expenses, leverage, dividends and interest on short positions, brokerage commissions, expenses incurred in connection with any merger, liquidation or reorganization, extraordinary or non-routine expenses such as litigation, and acquired fund fees and expenses, to 0.38% of the Domestic Equity Fund's average daily net assets, through January 28, 2020. The expense limitation agreement may be terminated at any time, and without payment of any penalty, by the Board of Trustees of the PFM Multi-Manager Series Trust (the "Trust"), on behalf of the Domestic Equity Fund, upon 60 days' written notice to the Adviser. The expense limitation agreement may not be terminated during its term by the Adviser without the consent of the Board of Trustees of the Trust. The Adviser will be permitted to recoup fees waived or expenses paid through the expense limitation agreement to the extent that the Domestic Equity Fund's expenses in the later periods fall below the amounts set forth above, so long as the recoupment is within three years from the date on which the fees were waived or expenses paid. The total amount of reimbursement to which the Adviser may be entitled shall not exceed an amount that would cause a share class to exceed its expense cap in place at the time the advisory fees were waived or expenses were incurred, or the expense cap currently in place, whichever is less.
