

Allison Corbally

Director

PFM Asset Management LLC

Allison joined PFM in 2017 and focuses on new business development for PFM's multi-asset class management capabilities. Her primary focus is introducing public retirement systems, endowments, foundations, healthcare organizations and other institutions in the South region to the benefits of PFM's multi-asset class management capabilities.

Her prior experience includes serving as a vice president and senior relationship and sales manager at State Street Global Advisors (SSGA), where she worked with a broad scope of institutional clients and various investment plan types. Prior to working at SSGA, Allison was an associate partner and client service director for Invesco Global. She was responsible for relationship and product management for institutional international and global equity clients. She also worked for Invesco Institutional as marketing director for public funds.

Allison has held board positions with the Children's Museum of Atlanta including development chair and executive committee member. She has also served on the Florida Public Pension Trustees Association (FPPTA) advisory committee and is currently on the Georgia Public Pension Trustees Association (GAPPT) membership committee. She holds the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) 7 and 63 licenses.

Contact

Bank of America Plaza
600 Peachtree Street, N.E.
Suite 3770
Atlanta, GA 30308

corballya@pfm.com
404.410.2223 office

Education

B.S. in Business Management
University of Vermont

MBA
Boston University

Professional Designations or Licenses

FINRA Series 7 and 63
Licenses

Started with PFM: 2017

Started in the Field: 1993