

Brandon Eyabi

Analyst

PFM Financial Advisors LLC

Brandon provides the primary analytical support for PFM's Memphis and Huntsville offices. Once he had completed analyst training with PFM, he joined the Memphis office in February 2019. He has undergone extensive training to learn and understand PFM's available models, analytics and resources. Brandon has worked with many issuers throughout Tennessee and the Mid-South on a full range of issuance types including general obligation, water and sewer and airport bond issuances, as well as various revenue bond issuances.

Brandon currently provides the primary analytical and day-to-day support for Mississippi and Tennessee clients, including such cities as Jackson, MS and Memphis, TN.

His duties include structuring, sizing, pricing new money and refunding municipal bond issues, preparing cash flow analyses and performing analyses of refunding opportunities. These analyses have been developed for the issuance of general obligation, limited obligation and revenue-backed bonds, both in taxable and tax-exempt forms.
