

Bjorn Reigle

Managing Director

PFM Financial Advisors LLC

Bjorn Reigle rejoined PFM's financial advisory business in 2016 as a managing director in the higher education practice in the Charlotte office. He previously worked for a large Wall Street Investment Bank in their Higher Education Group. As a member of the higher education team at PFM he brings over 12 years of higher education experience as both an investment banker and financial advisor as well as 15 years of public finance experience.

Throughout his career he has worked with higher education borrowers in the Southern United States working on over $5 billion of debt transactions. Bjorn advises his clients on a broad range of capital markets related services such as capital structure evaluation, risk assessment and management, debt capacity analysis, operating pro-forma analysis and rating agency strategy. During his career, he has assisted his clients on developing strategies that involve recapitalizing existing debt portfolios, funding new capital needs, and evaluating alternative finance delivery models. His clients include Georgia Institute of Technology, Georgia State University, Georgia Southern University, University of Virginia, West Virginia University, Washington and Lee University, Barton College and St. Leo University.
