

Carolyn Bruch

Director

PFM Financial Advisors LLC

Carolyn Bruch is a director in the firm's national public power and utility practice. Her client engagements frequently include design and implementation of complex plans of finance for large capital programs, restructuring and refunding opportunity evaluation and execution, and credit analysis. Carolyn works with some of the largest public power entities in the country, including Long Island Power Authority, New York Power Authority, Energy Northwest, and JEA. Since joining PFM in 2006, Carolyn has participated on debt transactions totaling over $20 billion.

Carolyn is also a part of PFM's Munité® team. Munité® is a one-stop shop investor relations platform that bridges the gap between the municipal issuer and investor communities, helping to ensure that issuers are optimizing their investor relations outreach when accessing the capital markets to secure funding for critical public projects.
