

Dan Nemec

Senior Managing Consultant
PFM Asset Management LLC

Dan Nemec joined the PFM Treasury Consulting team in 2019, working in the Chicago office. With more than 25 years of experience in treasury management for government, higher education, non-profit and institutional clients, he helps clients use their procurement processes to improve operational efficiencies, optimize economic decisions and secure deposited funds.

Prior to joining PFM, Dan had senior and executive management positions at two multinational banks, leading teams of treasury officers, analysts and associates serving clients over a 26-state region. He was responsible for managing proposal efforts in response to client procurements, including determining the best solutions to meet clients' needs. He has presented as a subject matter expert at industry conferences, including Government Finance Officers Association, National Association of State Treasurers, Electronic Funds Transfer Association and Bank Administration Institute.
