

Errol Brick, CPA, CGMA

Managing Director

PFM Financial Advisors LLC

Errol joined PFM in 2011 when PFM acquired his financial advisory firm, The Killarney Group. Errol founded Killarney in 1995 after spending 16 years providing investment banking and capital markets services to non-profit healthcare clients at Goldman, Sachs & Co. As Co-Head of PFM's Healthcare Group his clients include academic medical centers, multi-hospital systems as well as stand-alone hospitals. Other related clients include state issuers of tax-exempt for non-profit healthcare, higher education and non-collegiate schools including charter schools.

Errol's strategic advisory services to clients include evaluation of long-range business plans and risk adjusted evaluations of merger and acquisition candidates and joint ventures. Execution services include evaluation of pricing of debt instruments used to fund capital plans as well as evaluation and pricing of joint venture opportunities.

As president of the Killarney Group, Errol provided capital markets advisory and execution services, derivatives advisory services and merger and acquisition advisory services to healthcare clients. Errol has provided expert witness testimony to the Federal Trade Commission as well as evaluation services in support of counsel evaluating litigation risk.
