

Jeremy Niedfeldt

Director

PFM Financial Advisors LLC

Jeremy Niedfeldt is a director in PFM's Orlando office with over 16 years of experience advising on long term capital planning projects, comprehensive modeling for specific client engagements and complex debt structuring programs. His efforts are primarily focused on general municipal issuers such as cities, counties and local agencies in Florida, along with a presence in South Carolina. He is a technical analyst at the core, and he enjoys the challenge of creating innovative solutions to meet client's needs by providing specific and unique advice. Jeremy has provided transaction management support on over $13 billion in debt financings, through a variety of financing alternatives to include negotiated and competitive public bond offerings, privately placed bank loans, floating rate notes, commercial paper programs and lines of credit. His experience includes the use of credit support facilities used to secure variable rate debt, credit enhanced fixed rate debt and derivative products.

Prior to graduating from college, Jeremy served his country as a Sergeant in the U.S. Army, he was a first line supervisor and radar technician.

Jeremy graduated summa cum laude from the University of Florida with a Bachelor's degree in Finance, and later received his Master of Business Administration Degree from the University of Florida. He is a registered Municipal Advisor Representative (Series 50) and over the years has served as a director for various local not-for-profit and community Boards.
